

Diabetes Care

Proposals for Perspectives Submitted to Diabetes Care

Please send proposals formatted as outlined below in an email attachment to:
Shannon Potts, Director of Peer Review Operations, at spotts@diabetes.org.

Short Introduction Letter

Please include contact information for the designated corresponding author, a paragraph disclosing the author(s)' expertise in the area, and why author(s) are suited to write the article, as well as a proposed timeline for submission of the article.

Outline

I. AUTHOR(S) BIOGRAPHY AND DECLARATIONS

- A. Brief summary of qualifications, expertise related to the topic, and contributions
- B. Funding support and potential conflicts or dualities of interest for each author
- C. Acknowledgments, including editorial support and/or writing assistance

II. INTRODUCTION

- A. Background and context
- B. Importance of the chosen topic

III. OBJECTIVE

- A. Purpose and objectives of the review/perspective

IV. LITERATURE REVIEW

- A. Explanation of the methodology used for literature search and review
- B. Inclusion and exclusion criteria, including date range (years)
- C. Data extraction and synthesis process

V. MAIN THEMES AND FINDINGS

- A. Presentation of major themes or categories within the literature
- B. Implications for the field and/or potential applications
- C. Consideration of how the findings can inform policy, practice, or further research

VI. CONCLUSIONS

- A. Summary of the key points
- B. Recap of the significance of the topic and the insights gained
- C. Closing remarks on the overall contribution of the article